

Advanced IPv6 Security

Protecting the Future, Today

OMB M-05-22
Understand the operational impacts and risks of IPv6 integration on organizational network
security architecture

This Event Is Endorsed By

Workshop

January 12, 2006 ± Arlington Virginia
www.native6.com/workshops

Native6, Inc. is proud to host our second advanced IPv6 subject matter workshop on January 12, 2006 in Arlington, VA. The goal of these workshops is to provide attendees with access to a concentrated day on a particular IPv6 subject matter, with a focus on deployment, support, and critical issues.

Presenters for the day's subject will come from a variety of sources, including government, defense, private industry, IPv6 expertise bodies, and the network security world.

Workshop Agenda

7:00 – 8:00 AM	Complimentary Continental Breakfast
8:00 – 8:30 AM	Network Security Concept Reviews	Will Dixon, v6Security Inc.
8:30 – 9:15 AM	Network Security Concept Review (part 2)	Joe Klein, Honeywell
9:15 – 9:45 AM	Understanding the IPv6 Security Model	David Green, SRI International
9:45 – 10:00 AM	Break - Snacks & Refreshments
10:15 – 11:30 AM	IPv6 Security Threats	John Spence, Native6, Inc.
11:30 – 12:15 PM	Transition Security	John Spence, Native6, Inc.
12:15 – 1:15 PM	Complimentary Lunch Buffet
1:15 – 2:15 PM	IPv6 Security Tools	Joe Klein, Honeywell
2:15 – 3:45 PM	Security Paradigms: Network Security for Military, Homeland Defense, and the Commercial World - Panel	Mike Brig, DISA Transition Office
3:45 – 4:00 PM	Break - Snacks & Refreshments
4:00 – 5:00 PM	NAT: The Security Myth	Tony Hain, Cisco
5:00 – 6:00 PM	Best Security Practices for IPv6-Enabled Networks - Panel	Joe Klein, Honeywell John Spence, Native6, Inc. Merike Kao, DoubleShot Security David Green, SRI International Will Dixon, v6Security Inc.

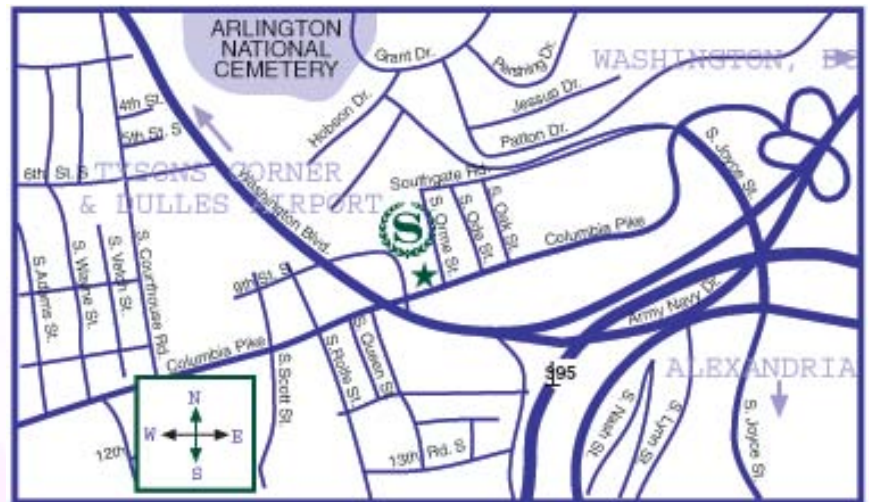

Advanced IPv6 Security Workshop

Location Details

Sheraton National Hotel
900 South Orme Street
Arlington, VA 22204
Telephone: (703) 521-1900
Fax: (703) 521-2122

Workshop participants receive a special reduced hotel rate of $169.99 per night. The reserved block is limited, so those wishing to stay at the hotel are encouraged to make their reservations as soon as possible. Reservations may be made by calling 1-888-627-8210 by 12/13/2005 and using the group name "Native6".

The Sheraton National Hotel is just minutes from downtown. To get detailed driving directions, please go to www.sheratonnational.com.

Logistics

January 12, 2005 ± 8:00 am - 6:00 pm

Continental Breakfast, Lunch, Snacks and Refreshments will be provided throughout the day. Complementary Parking is also provided during the day for workshop attendees. Guests who are staying overnight will also receive a reduced rate of $10.

Early registration is encouraged as seating is limited. Please see www.native6.com/workshops for registration.

Discount Rate if you sign up by December 24 $350 Government (ID Required)
 $495 Industry & Government Contractors

Workshop Rate $495 Government (ID Required)
 $550 Industry & Government Contractors

Your IPv6 Security, Transition & Training Expert

About Native6, Inc.

Native6 is a leading provider of professional services focused on IPv6 knowledge enhancement and integration for some of the largest organizations in IT and government. The company provides IPv6 training services and critical integration services designed to accelerate the IPv6 adoption process and provide customers with a distinct competitive advantage. Native6 is a key leader in the IPv6 community, holding leadership positions with the North American IPv6 Task Force and participating in IPv6 community activities, such as Moonv6 and IPv6 conferences worldwide. The company was founded in November of 2001 and is headquartered in Seattle, WA. For more information, visit Native6's Web site at <http://www.native6.com>.

Company Headquarters

Native6, Inc.
P.O. Box
Seattle, WA 98104
206.529.4543
info@native6.com

